YOUR INVITATION!

Dear fellow Pilgrims,

One of the great gifts to the Church is pilgrimage. Pilgrimage is a going out and a return. Within that short period of time, it's our prayer that our lives have somehow been affected. Of all the great treasures of Europe, the Marian shrines have stood the test of time and have been places where people have gone out and bended their knees in prayer with the hope of returning home a little different. I invite you now to join me and your fellow parishioners for these 9 days to Fatima, Santiago de Compostela, Lourdes and in-between. By this experience, you will be lead down the road where so many have gone before in the hopes of increasing their faith life and returning home a different person.

Within the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Fr. John
